

LANGLOIS LIBRARY CRIER

SPRING 2024

Welcome!

You might be wondering why we decided to name ourselves the Crier. In medieval England, town criers were the chief means of communication with the townspeople in a time before the moveable type was invented. Royal proclamations, local bylaws, market days, advertisements, even selling loaves of sugar were all proclaimed by a bellman or crier throughout the centuries.

WINTER

Recap

The Library and the Langlois Volunteer Firefighters Association hosted a visit with Santa, the Grinch and Woodburn.

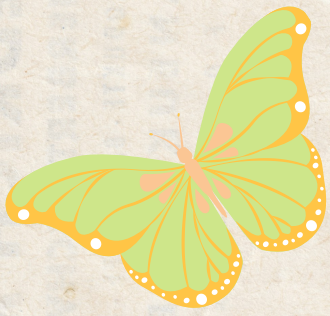

The wonderful sounds of Dace Sultanov on the Cello were enjoyed by 90+ attendees.

The Museum of Tiny Things came here.

Many hands will go into our “year of the dragon“ library dragon.

The Library sponsored a cheese tasting event at the Langlois Lions Club.

NEW!

?? DID YOU KNOW? ??

Thanks to many people's dedicated efforts, local High School yearbooks are now available online.
See them HERE.

You can get free kindle books through the library. Navigate to <https://library2go.overdrive.com/> and sign in. When prompted choose "Curry Public Library District". Once you are signed in, choose the kindle format tab and you are ready to borrow. You need a kindle reader and an amazon account for this format.

You can access full text magazine articles and research many subjects using the digital resource Gale databases online. One of our favorites is Nat Geo kids.

The library will be getting new carpets after 22 years. Thanks to the Friends for their contribution!
