

LANGLOIS LIBRARY CRIER

FALL 2026

We are adding a six week early literacy program

Fridays at 10:30 Starting Sept 18.

We will be having an author visit with children's author Erin Hourigan.

We will be starting a cozy book club. Stay tuned for details.

We will once again hold a kids craft fair on Nov. 21st .

Our ceiling repairs went very well and were finished in a timely manner.

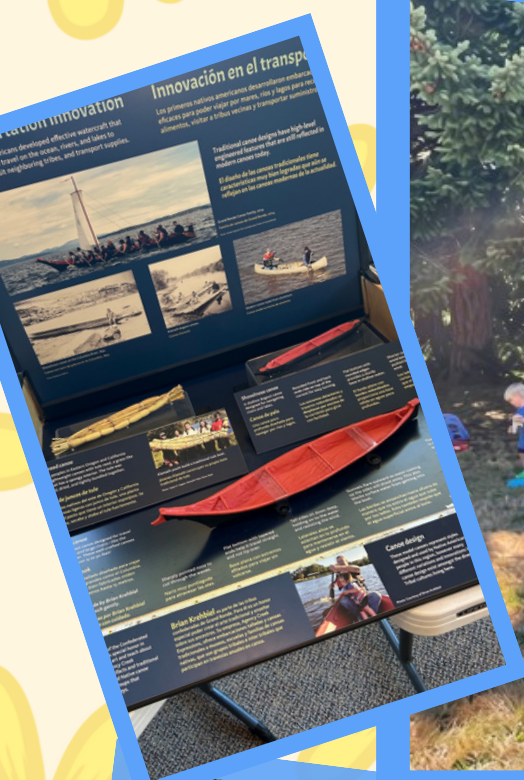

Our play focused summer programming was enjoyed by all, and included our now traditional "big finish" bouncy house party. The Friends annual ice cream social honored Bob Morrow, music was provided by Celtic Session.

We had an excellent traveling exhibit highlighting Native Innovations, from the Museum of Natural and Cultural History

We were part of a native plants self guided tour.

The Friends held their annual Booksale.

?? DID YOU KNOW? ??

We have a Master Gardener coming for the last two of our series of plant clinics.

Thurs. Sept 17th 11-2

Thurs. Oct. 15th 11-2

Bring your questions and get help with any gardening issues.

We now have a puzzle exchange!

Take a puzzle, leave a puzzle.

You don't need a puzzle to trade if you just want to pick one out, we have a nice variety to choose from to get you started.

Brooklyn Public library offers a program called Books Unbanned giving teens and young adults across the country unlimited access to an extensive collection of ebooks and audiobooks, including many which may be banned in their home libraries.

For more information, click on the link above, or teens can send a note to BooksUnbanned@bklynlibrary.org.

KNOW!?

A good skill or story?

CAN?

You present it to a group?

DO!

We would never have such an amazing library without such an amazing community.

Thank you.
